

This flow diagram shows how all major entities can be connected to optimized health care industry. Pick a keeper (see Google model) of the master medical history information. We must define good data packet interface standards and then get on with implementation. This shared information can be automated and secured in away that protects both our privacy and makes common sense to everyone.

